Mission Statement

Under the patronage of Mary, Mother of the Redeemer, we are a growing faith community centered in the Eucharist and dedicated to worshiping God, our Father.

In response to our baptismal call, we commit ourselves to promote the gospel of His Son, Jesus Christ, through Christian hospitality, spiritual nurturing, evangelical outreach, and shared social experience.

We call upon each parishioner to share his or her talents in addressing the needs of our parish and society at large. We implore the Holy Spirit to consecrate each of us in this mission.

From Our Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

Since launching our new parish website just one month ago, it has had 12,970 visits from 15 countries and territories! We have received much positive feedback from parishioners and “friends of the parish”. The new site is quite informative. Click on the banner “Sacraments”, for example, and you will find a rather detailed presentation on each of the seven sacraments. Click on the “Respect Life” banner, and you’ll see many updated entries on Pro-Life facts, statements and local activities. Be an informed Catholic! Visit www.mmredeemer.org.

SANCTUARY FUND

The new presider’s chair has been donated by Susan’s Calligraphy. We are most grateful for this generous contribution. It surely will assist us in enhancing our already attractive church, and add beauty to our liturgies.

We continue to maintain a “wish list” of items needed. In our preparations for the seasons of Advent and Christmas, the list includes: two floor candlesticks for the church, a censer stand, a brass Advent wreath for the chapel, brass flower stands, and deacon dalmatics and stoles. Please contact Monsignor Conway should you be interested in donating any of these furnishings.

UNDERSTANDING THE REVISED MASS TEXTS (5 of 11)

New Words: A Deeper Meaning, but the Same Mass

THE GLORIA

One of the biggest changes we'll notice with the new translation of the Roman Missal is the words of the Gloria. Much of the text of the Gloria comes from Scripture. The new translation for this prayer expresses more literally the sentiments of the Latin original. Have a look at it below. The changes are in bold print.

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

There are clearly substantial differences between the new liturgical text and the Gloria translation that we have been using. Turning to the second sentence of the new Gloria, we notice something striking – the new translation recovers entire phrases that were left out of the current translation. The Latin text of the hymn offers five successive ways in which we should pay homage to God: “We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory.” The result is indeed excessive - but that is the point. We are so overcome with awe in the presence of God we practically babble and stammer!

The addition of “Only Begotten Son” recovers a key phrase from the Latin text – “Fili Unigenite.” This is a venerable title of Jesus Christ, which speaks of the fact that the Son of God comes forth from the Father, yet is no less an eternal Person of the Divine Trinity.

For more information on this and other revisions, the US Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has an excellent website dedicated to the implementation of the new Roman Missal (<http://www.usccb.org/romanmissal>). We encourage you to check it out.
