Mission Statement

Under the patronage of Mary, Mother of the Redeemer, we are a growing faith community centered in the Eucharist and dedicated to worshiping God, our Father.

In response to our baptismal call, we commit ourselves to promote the gospel of His Son, Jesus Christ, through Christian hospitality, spiritual nurturing, evangelical outreach, and shared social experience.

We call upon each parishioner to share his or her talents in addressing the needs of our parish and society at large. We implore the Holy Spirit to consecrate each of us in this mission.

Mary, Mother of the Redeemer, help us share in the work of redemption.

DIRECTION

Isaiah tells us something that we already know, and yet seem to forget every now and then. He tells us, essentially, that God is God and we are not. When we're confused and troubled and can't figure everything out, it might be wise to recall Isaiah speaking on the Lord's behalf and explaining that God, who is on a much more, well, Godly wavelength than we are, moves in ways we can't even imagine.

Saint Paul, by comparison, has everything figured out, kind of. At least he understands his calling in life, to magnify Christ in everything he does. That should give all of us the direction we need. Jesus gives us direction, too, explaining to us once again in the parable of the workers in the vineyard that the last will be first, and the first, last.

UNDERSTANDING THE REVISED MASS TEXTS (2 of 11)

New Words: A Deeper Meaning, but the Same Mass

THE CONFITEOR

Just as in the past, there will be three options for the Penitential Rite in the new English edition of the Roman Missal. The third option is the prayer known by its Latin title “the Confiteor.” It begins “I confess to almighty God.” There will be a new translation for this prayer. It’s almost the same as the one we know, but different enough to cause some initial confusion. Have a look at it below. The changes are in bold print.

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

At first, saying the phrase “I have greatly sinned,” striking our breast at “through my fault,” repeating those words, and then adding “through my most grievous fault,” all make it sound as though we are a lot more sinful now than we used to be. Remember, though, that the guiding principle of the new translation is a closer adherence to the words in Latin --- not a sharper critique of our goodness. What the new translation does do is have us express more grandly the seriousness of our sin and the sincerity of our contrition. It offers a humbler way to collect ourselves before moving any further into our praying the Mass.

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has an excellent website dedicated to the implementation of the Roman Missal (<http://www.usccb.org/romanmissal>). We encourage you to review this information.
